

Alabama Gas District Chooses eWebOQ by OQ Partners

August 18, 2003 – OQ Partners announced today that Clarke-Mobile Counties Gas District has chosen eWebOQ with its built in Performance Check lists.

Among the driving factors that led to the Clarke-Mobile Counties Gas District decision was the solution itself, it is totally inclusive with built in records management, courses, performance check lists, full editing rights, and more. Clarke-Mobile Counties Gas District liked the fact that an experienced gas company wrote the course content.

Additionally, Clarke-Mobile Counties Gas District will be taking advantage of their existing course content that was written in PowerPoint. eWebOQ allows system administrators to set up and use courses manufactured by other companies.

With eWebOQ you maintain control of individual training records, assign personal curriculum, edit courses and tests, and grow the system as you see appropriate.
